GLORY OF OLD RANCOCAS

Famous Farm in New Jersey that Pierre Lorillard Established.

Noble Establishment Which Produced Parole and Other Great Horses.

"I don't believe there will ever be such another stock farm as Rancocas, the old Pierre Lorillard place at Jobstown, N. J., was in the early eighties," said Dr. Oliver C. Farley, the veterinarian who for several years had charge of the thoroughbreds at Rancocas, which was then the largest place of its kind in America. That was in the good old racing days when Iroquois went across from Rancocas to win the Derby and Parole to win the Newmarket Handicap, City and Suburban Handicap, Epsom Gold Cup and other famous English racing fixtures.

"Just as there was no other farm quite like Rancocas, in my opinion there was no other sportsman as remarkable as Pierre Lorillard," Dr. Farley continued. "Lorillard was not only lavish in his expenditures of money on sport, especially racing, but he took an active part himself.

"He was a great whip, an excellent shot with rifle or shotgun and an expert boxer. To see him tooling with his four-in-hand in and out of crowded streets was a sight that always called forth admiration. He was a thorough, true sportsman and would bet with the bookmakers when his horse was entered in a race as long as they would take the money. He would usually bet $20,000 at a time.

"Although he was fond of betting on his horses he believed in obeying the letter of the law. When Pontiac won the second Suburban at Sheepshead Bay, I remember, the Percy Gray law had just gone into effect prohibiting betting. Although the price against Pontiac was a good one Mr. Lorillard refused to bet on his horse in violation of the law. Not only that, but he ordered all the stable employes not to bet, on pain of discharge.

RANCOCAS A SPLENDID HOME.

"Rancocas was Lorillard's great diversion from the cares of business. It was not merely a stud for the breeding of fine horses. Registered cattle and hogs were bred there, and part of the place was used as a game preserve, where deer brought from Germany, English pheasants and red English hare might be hunted. There was a fish pond stocked with carp and terrapin.

"A dog kennel run on English lines by Percy Ohl was a feature of the place. There was a stable of Shetland ponies. Rancocas was 1,800 acres in extent and had a track seven-eighths of a mile long for training. On each side of this track the length of the stretch were flower beds where beautiful blooms grew in the warm months.

"In the early '80s there were about 100 brood mares at Rancocas. Saxon was the head of the stud until displaced by services from the great Leamington, which was brought over by Sir Roderick Cameron, who for a long time had a big place on Staten Island. Leamington's line is bred out and forgotten now, I guess, but his progeny at Rancocas were highly successful, including Parole, one of the greatest handicap horses ever bred in America.

"Iroquois was bred by Aristides Welch at Erdenheim, Pa., and bought by Mr. Lorillard as a yearling, and so was not a product of the farm at Jobstown. He was never the horse that Parole was, in my opinion. This was in the heyday of the Lorillard stables, and the cherry and black colors often came through in front. It was Mr. Lorillard's habit when he won a big race to tip the jockey and trainer $500 each. This was his favorite tip, and he usually gave it to any of his employes he thought had done particularly good work.

GREAT HORSES IN LORILLARD COLORS.

"Pontiac, Comanche, Iroquois, Parole, Duke of Magenta, Glenlyon and others carried the Rancocas colors to victory. Charles Littlefield, father of Fred and Nelse, had come down from Canada to train them, and we all lived at Rancocas except when actually racing. One year the progeny of Leamington there numbered fifteen yearlings, all of which raced well afterward.

"It was a great stable, and I remember at the time the success of Rancocas' horses was attributed to the fact that they were 'bred under glass.' This was true, in a way of speaking, for a big glass barn was built there, where the foals and yearlings could be exercised in the sun in the coldest weather. That was the only horse greenhouse I ever saw. It may have contributed to their success on the track.

"Of all the horses in that famous string I think Parole was the one the trainers, jockeys and even Mr. Lorillard himself liked best. Parole was a human sort of horse. Littlefield used to say he knew more than many men he could mention.

"Parole, for a thoroughbred racer, was not as much on looks as some of the others. When we arrived in England he had a somewhat shaggy coat, and when the English horsemen saw him they laughed at the idea of his accomplishing anything against English horses. Some of them even dubbed him the 'Yankee mule.'

"Well, we all kept quiet and tuned Parole up for the Newmarket Handicap, one of the big fixtures that was soon to be run. We knew he was good. It was a great day, I remember, when all was ready for the race and the six starters were at the post. I can remember seeing old McGeorge, the famous starter, out there with his flag and with no barrier to bother him.

HOW THE "YANKEE MULE" WON.

"Isonomy, the great English horse, was the favorite. None of the Britishers gave a thought to Parole, which was the outsider at 100 to 15. We bet all the money we could beg, borrow or steal, as the saying goes, but the English bookies only laughed at such foolishness and did not lower the odds. That was a favorite price for an outsider on the English tracks.

"When they got away the cherry and black could not be seen anywhere. We had a little English boy named Morbey on Parole, and decided we would all be broke for the next few weeks. When they hit the stretch Isonomy was in the lead by several lengths. The crowd yelled with glee, and it looked as if the favorite couldn't lose unless he fell down.

"Suddenly a brown streak shot out of the bunch and closed up on the favorite like lightning. The great crowd gasped. It was Parole, the Yankee mule, making one of his famous finishes. Morbey was riding the Rancocas gelding like a veteran jockey. He did not go to the whip, however; Parole did not need that.

"They hooked up 300 yards from home, and in one of the most grueling finishes ever seen on that historic course Parole trimmed the English champion. We roared and raved as they were coming down the stretch, and after the race found we had won so much money we didn't bother to collect all of it.

"The English bookies never laughed at the Yankee mule again."

RECORD OF A STABLE WHICH DID WELL IN LAST YEAR'S RACING THROUGH THE FLEETNESS OF ROUTLEDGE AND STAR HAMPTON

W. M. Jeffords of Philadelphia has not achieved any marked degree of success in racing since he recently embarked in the sport. But he has been a liberal buyer of young stock and, if he keeps on, his day will come. Last year he campaigned six horses and had the pleasure of winning stake races with the two-year-olds Routledge and Star Hampton. Routledge taking the Adirondack Handicap at Saratoga in fast time, while Star Hampton won the Colorado Stakes at Jamaica and the Albany Handicap at Saratoga, defeating no less a celebrity than the redoubtable Billy Kelly in the latter race, but carrying only 115 pounds to 133 on Billy Kelly. However, it was a capital performance and Mr. Jeffords has a brace of excellent three-year-old prospects in these young horses. The others in his stable were but moderate, although not one of them failed to win a bit of money, the record of the stable being:

WINN SEVERS EASTERN CONNECTIONS

Will Conduct Juarez Racing if Any Takes Place There Next Winter.

NEW YORK, N. Y., March 23.—Col. Mat Winn arrived here yesterday to look after his eastern affairs before moving to Kentucky with his family. In the future his whole attention will be devoted to Kentucky racing. He will still retain his directorships in the institutions hereabouts and retain his financial interests, especially at Laurel, at the suggestion and request of the majority stockholders, which includes Price McKinney, James Butler, George W. Loft and Thos. Monahan.

"While I regret having to resign from the management of Laurel, I could not in all fairness to those who undertook the Kentucky enterprise held the managerial office at two institutions, which will conflict" said Mr. Winn. "My sole object is to do the best I can at all times for the encouragement of racing and its welfare, no matter when or for whom or where, and for that reason I shall only be too willing to advise and work for better results when I can be of service. I, as well as others, believe that the new move in Kentucky will be of great benefit to the turf and breeding industry, not only in Kentucky but wherever racing is conducted. To give up the management of Laurel touches a tender chord, for Laurel was an institution in which I took much pride. Empire City appealed to me also on account of its associations and the fact that it was built up after a hard struggle to its present prominence.

"While I shall be in Kentucky most of the time during the racing season, it is more than probable I shall return here in July and August to take in the Empire City and Saratoga meetings as a sort of vacation.

"Regarding Juarez, that track will be one of the subjects under consideration this week. In fact, Mr. McKinney and others concerned, are now in consultation about racing there next winter, but nothing definite has been decided upon. Much depends upon the conditions in Mexico at that time. I shall be in a position to give out a statement in regard to Juarez later in the season. It all depends upon the national situation as the time approaches.

"I cannot say at the present time whether there will be any material changes in the conduct of the Kentucky meetings, as the new institution is in its infancy, but whatever changes there are will be in the interest of the turf, the thoroughbred and its patrons."

KENTUCKY JOCKEY CLUB DIRECTORS

LEXINGTON, Ky., March 23.—Thus far nine of the twelve members of the board of directors of the Kentucky Jockey Club have been elected. They are Messrs. Johnson N. Camden of Versailles, president; Matt J. Winn of Louisville, vice-president and general manager; Catesby Woodford of Bourbon County, Lawrence Jones, Henning Chambers, Patrick J. Hanlon, Robert W. Bingham, Alvin T. Hert and Charles F. Grainger, all of Louisville. It is rumored here that one of the remaining three seats on the board will be filled by a Lexington man and that the other two will be occupied by selections from northern Kentucky, possibly Jerome B. Respess of Erlanger and Richard P. Ernst of Covington. The Lexington member may be Robert L. Baker, but the names of several others are being mentioned. Baker is the largest individual stockholder residing in Fayette County. Sherman Goodpaster, it is said, is to have an assistant as secretary and treasurer in the person of Francis Douglas of Boyle County, who was private secretary to Governor James B. McCreary and before that sporting editor of the New York World.

That the people generally have confidence in the future of racing under the new order and organization is forcefully demonstrated in the demand for shares and the expressions of regret from so many persons, who for one reason or another, failed to make application for stock until after the books were closed. It was subscribed for so quickly that it was all gone while many persons were turning over in their minds the questions incident to new movements and reorganizations.

President Camden is expected back in Kentucky from Arizona about April 15.

TURF NOTES FROM LANDS ABROAD

George Child Villiers, the sixth Earl of Jersey, was one of the most famous sportsmen of his time. He owned the wonderful mare Cobweb, which won for him the One Thousand Guineas and the Oaks, and at the stud became the dam of Bay Middleton and Clementina (winner of the One Thousand). Lord Jersey won the Derby three times, with the aid of Middleton, Mameluke and Bay Middleton.

Some remarkably high prices—for that country—were recently given for thoroughbred yearlings at a sale at Victot in Italy. Seventeen products produced $35,000, or an average of over $2,000. The chief prices were given for the stock of Nimbus, and M. R. Padana paid $5,800 for Exil, a colt dam Biella. The average for the yearlings of this sire was $3,170. Ramrod, Elf and Saint Marcet were the other stallions represented in the sale list.

NEW ARRIVALS AT THE BOWIE TRACK

J. Mayberry, T. Shannon, G. E. Hall and J. H. Stotler Bring Their Horses to Harford Track.

BALTIMORE, Md., March 23.—New arrivals this week at Bowie track in Prince George County, Maryland, where the Southern Maryland Agricultural Association will inaugurate the eastern racing season on April 1, are John Mayberry, Thomas Shannon, G. Ernest Hall and J. H. Stotler. The best looking two-year-old at Bowie is Mr. Hall's Franc Tireur, a strapping chestnut, by Free Lance—Latifa, she a daughter of Hamburg and the celebrated Yorkville Belle. Free Lance, the sire of this youngster, was killed in a stallion fight at George J. Long's Bashford Manor Stud a few years back. Already he has several winners, one of which, Wyndover, won at Bowie last fall. But there is nothing of Free Lance about this colt Franc Tireur. The youngster is a perfect Hamburg in physique, manners and action, and he looks like a runner. Hall bought him from Harry Rites. Franc Tireur will be ready for the races the second week of the meeting. Sunny Hill, a son of Lemberg and Leisure, and half-brother of Holiday and Royal Tourist, will be Hall's breadwinner at Bowie. He is ready for the bugle now. Hall is patrol judge at Bowie.

Stotler, who wintered at the Gentlemen's Driving Park, trains the stable of G. W. J. Bissell, a stove and hardware magnate of Pittsburgh. He has taken to Bowie Valspar, Sibola, Sister Emblem, Napoli and Notisco, all seasoned campaigners and all ready. Stotler told superintendent Richard Pending yesterday that training conditions had been so favorable at the driving park he had not missed a day in the open all winter. Valspar, which developed some talent for long-distance running at Pimlico and Bowie last fall, is the best of the Bissell string. Sibola and Sister Emblem are better at sprinting.

T. W. O'BRIEN'S STABLE ARRIVES.

Shannon came up from New Orleans with the stable of Thomas W. O'Brien, the Chicago turfman. Shannon has some horses, but he thinks more of his young rider, John Stapleton, of Richmond Hill, Long Island, than he does of any of his horses. Stapleton, Shannon declares, is the most promising jockey he has seen in many years, which is something of a statement for the developer of Clarence Turner and young Ensor to make. It is Shannon's prediction that Stapleton will make good right off. For O'Brien Shannon has brought to Bowie Plummet, a chestnut filly, two years old and a winner; Plureen, a chestnut filly, three years old and a winner of one race in one start, both daughters of Pluvious and sisters. Also he has Risponde, which is still good for an occasional race. For Philip A. Clark, the owner of Dunboyne, he has brought the foreign-bred two-year-old Canvasback, and for Frank Capra, Kerry Lass, a two-year-old, by Heno—Kilcrea; My Ada, a two-year-old, by Zeus—Lida V., and Boher-Na-Breena, a two-year-old by Ildrim Lillie Hoy. Shannon has no horses belonging to Edward Soule for Bowie racing. The halter folk took Pullux away from him last year, and he has Paddy Whack turned out at Jamaica in charge of Preston M. Burch. Kerry Lass was bred by William Woodward at Belair Farm in Prince George County, Maryland.

The Mayberry band are made up of part of the stable of James Arthur, Arthur having arrived ahead of him with the big division of the string. Mayberry has Charlie Leydecker, which, occasionally, is a good horse, but generally is unreliable because of his unsoundness; Bagheera, a fast but not too sound son of Tracery and Glass Jug; Little Maudie and Kingling II. Bagheera, which was intended for big things, is, Mayberry avers, training better this year than he did at any time last year. Mayberry is not without hope of getting him to the post at Bowie in condition to win one of the best races run there.

COLONEL LIVINGSTON OUT OF DERBY

LEXINGTON, Ky., March 23.—B. J. Brannon's Colonel Livingston will not be a starter for the Blue Grass Stakes, which is to be run Saturday, May 3, as a preliminary to the Kentucky Derby. Neither will Colonel Livingston be one of the runners for the Kentucky Derby. The son of Handsel—Axis is not training soundly at Louisville and his owner fears that an application of the firing iron will be necessary to remove the good colt's ailment. St. Bernard, the son of Ivan the Terrible—Beatrice K., however, is being pointed for both of these races.

Robert L. Baker's King Gorin, winner of the Kentucky Handicap in 1917, now six years old, will not race this spring. Though he still is in Jack Baker's stable at the local track, he has been fired and is to be mated with ten or twelve mares at Kingston Farm. After the close of the Latonia meeting, July 5, he will be taken up, returned to training and will be raced next fall. Next year he is to be permanently retired to the stud.

Dr. J. C. Phelps returned last night from Hot Springs, where he had been called for the practice of his profession. "They are having a great meeting there," said he, "and it will get better. I never saw horses looking better than are those in the stables of J. W. McClelland, J. H. Rosseter and W. S. Kilmer. Eternal, The Wanderer, Exterminator, Mormon, Farmingdale and Passing Shower are live wires."

Jockey J. Majestic has been engaged by William Wallace to ride for the Castaway Stable this year.

SOUTH AFRICAN RACING EXPANDING

Racing is booming in Johannesburg, South Africa. For the recent four days' meeting of the Johannesburg Turf Club the added money was $66,875, which was $16,125 more than last year. The principal handicap carried a value of $10,000.

VIEWING THE HORSES WORK

Hundreds Visit Oaklawn to Witness Sunday Morning Gallops.

Eternal Only Canters, but Bridesman Works a Good Mile—Meeting Is Prosperous.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., March 23.—Tourists by the hundreds visited Oaklawn Park this morning to watch the thoroughbreds in their exercise gallops, and from soon after daylight until noon the course was fairly alive with horses, much to the satisfaction of the large number of visitors. The track was at its best, and as a result unusually good moves were the order of the day.

Many persons expected to see Eternal, J. W. McClelland's crack three-year-old work today, but they were disappointed, as trainer Kim Patterson was content with having him at half speed through the stretch after a slow gallop around the course. This was in preparation for a fast gallop tomorrow. The only Derby horse to be given anything like good work was Bridesman, W. Martin's son of Lonowand—Fleur d'Orange. The brown colt was sent a mile in 1:45⅖ without being urged. This colt is a maiden, and even though he started seven times last year, Martin is confident that he will make a high-class three-year-old and that he is of Derby caliber. Visitors from all parts of the country, as well as turf followers who have been connected with the sport of racing for years, are loud in their praise of the present Oaklawn Park meeting, as thus far this spring it has not only been one of the cleanest ever conducted anywhere, but it has been productive of more interesting racing and stirring finishes than ever before. Since the meeting opened there have been forty-two races run, and the winners of seventeen of them have had a half length or less to spare at the finish. Thirteen races have been decided by the margins of a nose, head or neck. This is considered remarkable, in view of the fact that in only a few races have the better grade of horses gone to the post, and they have not furnished as interesting racing as the cheaper horses.

There are plenty of good horses here, and racing secretary J. B. Campbell is giving them ample opportunities to get into action, but their owners have not taken advantage of them to any great extent as yet. The good ones are rapidly getting into their best form, however, and they will be seen under colors with greater frequency from now on.

Jockey D. Connelly, who is under contract to the Arkansas racing firm of Solomon & Jarmon for the Oaklawn meeting, is leading the list of winning riders here with seven victories to his credit. Most of them were won on the Solomon & Jarmon horses. Jockey Mack Garner has ridden six winners here to date. Both Connelly and Garner have three victories in one day to their credit at the local meeting. Longer distance racing again will be featured this week, and there seems to be an abundance of staying horses around here. For the first time since the Oaklawn plant was built secretary Campbell will put on a race of one mile and five-eighths. This race will be run next Friday and will be for four-year-olds and over.

As has been the custom since the meeting opened, there will be a handicap or purse race each day of $800 value and when any of these races do not fill two races each worth $700 will be put on. This keeps the total daily purse distribution at $3,800.

Judging from the way Exterminator ran yesterday, his first start this year and with 126 pounds on his back, Willis Sharpe Kilmer is going to have a strong card to play in the $10,000 added Kentucky Handicap and the $4,000 added Clark Handicap, in both of which events the son of McGee—Fair Empress has been entered and both of which will be decided at Churchill Downs this spring.

HAVANA SUNDAY FEATURE TO HENRY G.

James Breaks the Mile Track Record and Lytle the Mile and Quarter.

HAVANA, Cuba, March 23.—The General Crowder Handicap over the mile and a sixteenth course was the feature offered by the Cuba-American Jockey Club at Oriental Park this afternoon. It brought together a good field and furnished an exciting contest in which the winner was Mrs. L. A. Livingston's Ildrim colt Henry G. He made all the pace and in a sinew-straining finish, beat Wise Man by a nose. The winner was timed separately in the last mile, which he ran in 1:38⅘. Barney Shannon, the favorite, stumbled at the turn into the backstretch, throwing his rider and running away for three miles.

James won the sixth race in a canter and incidentally hung up a new track record for a mile, running the distance in 1:38⅘.

After dismounting from Heredity in the first race jockey Troise received a cablegram informing him of the death of his father at Los Angeles, Cal. The lad will leave for the States in the morning.

Another track record was broken when Lytle ran a mile and a quarter in 2:05 in the closing race of the afternoon. He came from behind in a driving finish and won going away.

An immense gathering was present this afternoon, society turning out in force. The attendance this season has kept up particularly well during the closing days of the meeting.

Frank Steinhart entertained a party of friends this afternoon. The party, which numbered thirty, gathered at the clubhouse about noon, where a sumptuous repast was served, at the conclusion of which Mr. Steinhart's guests occupied boxes on the clubhouse veranda to witness the running of the excellent Sunday program.

J. E. Nehill, of Saratoga Springs, a clerk employed by one of the bookmakers at Oriental Park, died suddenly last night as a result of cerebral hemorrhage. He was here as the representative of John Sullivan. His body will be shipped to the States Tuesday for internment.

OLD CHAMPION TO RACE OVER HURDLES

Old Scoutmaster—his age is ten—is now in P. Nolan's care at Randwick, Sydney, New South Wales, Australia, and is being schooled for hurdling. He holds the Australian record of 3:00 for a mile and three-quarters, but though he can still gallop a bit he may lack the necessary dash to make a successful hurdler.

THIRTY LEADING AMERICAN JOCKEYS

J. Pitz rode so well at Havana last week as to credit himself with nine winning mounts. Considering that he had only scored seven previously this year, it was quite a feat for the lad. Another Havana rider, but one of much more experience, A. Pickens, won six times. D. Connelly, who is riding in good form at Oaklawn, also added six to his score of winning mounts. M. Garner and R. Troise each did well with five. Riding four winners placed little T. Murray in a tie with C. Robinson for the leadership, a position he will probably take himself this week. The records of our thirty leaders are now:

FINE FRENCH RACING PROSPECTS

PARIS, France, March 22.—Regular racing will certainly be resumed in France early this year. In the interests of horse breeding "test" meetings have been held since the commencement of the war, but the attendance of the public was barred, as was any form of betting, and the prize money was small. At the end of October, when the war was going all in favor of the allies, some sales were held in Paris, and M. Eknayan gave $8,400 for the brood mare Sun Kiss, by Sir Geoffrey or Sundridge—Absurdity. The same buyer also secured Sun Kiss' foal by Nimbus for $12,800—a record for France.

STAR RACERS IN KENTUCKY HANDICAP

Cudgel, Old Rosebud, Exterminator, Billy Kelly, Eternal and Other Cracks Among Nominations.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 23.—Fifty-one of the best handicap horses in America have been nominated to the Kentucky Handicap, to be run at Churchill Downs Saturday afternoon, May 24. This fixture, which was the annual headliner of the spring meeting at Douglas Park track, will be maintained by the Kentucky Jockey Club, which now owns all of the tracks in this state, as a feature second only to the Kentucky Derby.

The race this year has attracted the stars of the older division, as well as the most highly-rated three-year-olds. It has ever been the opening battle for the premier honors among the more matured performers, and the coming event will be no exception.

Cudgel, winner of the big race last year, has been named by Commander J. K. L. Ross, who has also nominated Billy Kelly, Boniface and Foreground. The son of Broomstick—Eugenia Burch is expected to be top weight, and in an entry with one of his stablemates would form an attractive combination.

Old Rosebud has been named by F D. Weir, and reports from his stable indicate that he is in a fair way to stage another of his notable comebacks. The game little gelding has apparently recovered from his ailment of last year and is expected to train soundly. With Jack Hare Jr. as a running mate for the son of Uncle, the Applegate-Weir connections are pleased with the prospect.

Rancher, Midway, The Porter, Exterminator, winner of the 1918 Kentucky Derby; Viva America, and other topnotchers of the older brigade are being prepared for the race. The nominations follow:

W. E. Applegate's Jack Hare Jr., br. c, 4, by Marathon—Moon'et.

R. L. Baker & Co.'s Pif Jr., blk. g, 7, by Waterboy—Anna Bain.

E. R. Bradley's Porte Drapeau, br. c, 4, by Sunstar—Bright Cherry.

B. J. Brannon's Colonel Livingston, b. g, 3, by Handsel—Axis; St. Bernard, ch. g, 3, by Ivan the Terrible—Beatrice K; Allah, b. g, 3, by McGee—Mirror; Hopeful, b. g, 3, by McGee—Pink Rose.

Edward Cebrian's American Ace, br. c, 3, by Von Tromp—Rosegal.

T. H. Cross' Royce Rools, b. g, 4, by Salvation—Saintolat.

J. B. Goodman's Bribed Voter, ch. g, 5, by Ballot—Marie Frances.

H. P. Headley's Duke of Savoy, ch. c, 4, by Uncle—Lady Savoy.

George M. Hendrie's Rancher, b. h, 7, by Galveston—Sweet Lavender.

S. M. Henderson's Beaverkill, br. h, 5, by Ogden—Dolly Higgins.

S. C. Hildreth's Purchase, ch. c, 3, by Ormondale—Cherryola; Cirrus, b. c, 3, by Tracery—Morningside; Alibi, blk. c, 4, by Tracery—Amicitia.

Willis Sharpe Kilmer's Exterminator, ch. g, 4, by McGee—Fair Empress.

Jefferson Livingston's Aurum, b. c, 4, by Mushroom—Royal Anne; Spearlene, b. c, 4, by Spearmint—dam by Cyllene.

George J. Long's Freecutter, b. c, 4, by Free Lance—Cutter; Ocean Sweep, b. f, 4, by Sweep—Ocean Blue.

G. A. Marshall's Courtship, b. h, 5, by Phoenix—Courtisane.

Frank Martin's Friendless, br. h, 5, by Superman—Luckless.

J. W. McClelland's Eternal, br. c, 3, by Sweep—Hazel Burke; The Wanderer, b. c, 3, by Vulcain—Rose Tree II.

E. B. McLean's (Folly Farm Stable) Uncle White, ch. c, 4, by Uncle—Busy Lass; The Porter, b. c, 4, by Sweep—Ballet Girl.

Middleton & Jones' (Pastime Stable) Guy Fortune, ch. h, 5, by Transvaal—Cerina; Bugle Call, b. g, 3, by Burgomaster—Incognita.

J. C. Milam's Capt. Rees, ch. g, 6, by Plaudit—Starry Night.

F. J. Nolan's (Beverwyck Stable) Fizer, b. h, 5, by Transvaal—Foundling.

J. W. Parrish's Midway, ch. h, 5, by Ballot—Thirty-third.

W. F. Polson's Vulcanite, b. c, 3, by Vulcain—Single Shot.

A. L. Rogers' Texas Special, br. c, 3, by Ballot—Clara J.

Otto Rogers' Cerinus, ch. c, 3, by Transvaal—Cerina; John O., b. c, 3, by Sir John Johnson—Countess Wanda; Enmity, br. g, 3, by Transvaal—Illwill.

Commander J. K. L. Ross' Cudgel, b. h, 5, by Broomstick—Eugenia Burch; Boniface, b. h, 4, by Transvaal—Cerina; Foreground, ch. c, 4, by Fugleman—Sketches; Billy Kelly, br. g, 3, by Dick Welles—Glena.

John W. Schorr's Jas. T. Clark, br. c, 4, by Dick Finnell—Paradise Won.

Williams Bros.' Linden, b. c, 3, by Martinet—Lady Esther.

Geo. Wingfield's (Nevada Stock Farm) Tombolo, b. c, 4, by Grey Leg—Bernina.

J. Hal Woodford's Sway, b. g, 3, by Vulcain—Ruby Right.

C. T. Worthington's Viva America, ch. f, 4, by McGee—Pink Rose.

KIKU A CANDIDATE FOR OAKS HONORS

Has Wintered Well in Care of Her Owner and Has Good Credentials in Racing.

LEXINGTON, Ky., March 23.—W. L. Lewis has in his stable at the Kentucky Association course two daughters and a granddaughter of the good mare Silk Maid (half-sister to Ivan the Terrible, A. D. Gibson and Monsieur Beaucaire), by Esher—Kate Pelletier, by Rapture. The daughters are the four-year-old brown filly Silk Lady, by Ormondale, and the three-year-old brown filly Kiku, by Sweep. The granddaughter is the three-year-old bay filly, Lady Fair Play, by Fair Play—Crystal Maid. He has in Cuba another granddaughter, the four-year-old bay filly, Crystal Day, by Peep o'Day—Crystal Maid, which was under lease to Jake Holtman for the season and now is for sale. The other three are to be raced in Kentucky this year. Silk Lady was cut down on the opening day of the meeting here last fall and has not raced since, but she is galloping soundly again and should be ready for the spring meeting at the local track. Kiku started only twice last year, both races being at Latonia. She was third and then won. She is eligible to the Ashland Oaks, as is also Lady Fair Play, which started twice last year, but did not win.

All of the horses in the Lewis stable last spring were sick and they did not get completely over it until well into the autumn. This year, however, they are in good health. Three two-year-old fillies comprise the remainder of the string. One is a chestnut daughter of Dick Finnell—Ethel D., a good race mare, by Box—Domino Noire. This is Ethel D.'s second foal, her first being Little D. Another chestnut filly is a granddaughter of the great mare Yorkville Belle, her sire being Elkhorn and her dam Iroquois Belle. The third two-year-old is a brown daughter of Golden Maxim, dam a Peep o'Day mare. She is the property of a gentleman who resides in Louisville. Silk Maid is not in foal this year. Her last produce is Kiku. She has been an irregular breeder, but a success as a matron, for the five she has thrown have won. She is badly crippled, having never recovered from her fall at Chicago.

BIG VALUE OF THE TETRARCH'S DAM

Vahren (Bona Vista—Castania), dam of The Tetrarch, was first sold as a yearling for $312 and later for $1,260. She raced for three seasons for three wins in $500 plates and commenced badly at the stud, none of her produce living until she was eleven years old. Her fourth living foal was The Tetrarch, which was sold as a yearling for $6,760, and winning each of the seven races in which he ran as a two-year-old he was retired to the stud undefeated. The seven yearlings by The Tetrarch that were sold in 1917 realized $107,640, and the first of his progeny raced last year, six winning. English writers credit Stefan the Great with being easily the best youngster by The Tetrarch, whose list for this season at $1,560 fee filled early last year. Roi Herode (sire of The Tetrarch) is doing duty also at a fee of $1,560.

BREEDING STOCK OF SOUTH AFRICA

The recently issued volume of the General Stud Book of South Africa includes 671 mares, and of these 329 were bred in England, 304 in South Africa, fifteen in South America, seven in the United States, nine in Australia, six in France and one in New Zealand. Of the thoroughbred stallions in South Africa 250 were bred in England, sixty in South Africa, eleven in South America, ten in the United States, eight in Australia and three in New Zealand.

Went to post at 3:49. At post 2 minutes. Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. HENRY G. set a fast pace, saved ground on all the turns and hung on gamely in the final drive. WISE MAN was a forward contender throughout and was gradually wearing the leader down at the end. HOCNIR tired in the stretch drive. BARNEY SHANNON stumbled and lost his rider on the turn into the backstretch and ran away three miles. THE BLUE DUKE ran well.

Overweights—Tetley, 1 pound.
